The Hospitality Industry

Almost 75,000 students in NSW are set to finish their final exams and leave school by early November 2026, and up to 30% will enter the workforce.

Short Courses Australia offer students aged 14+ access to hospitality compliance certificates and skills based industry training that are pre-requisites for employment.

Completion of short courses offers your child a competitive advantage when applying for jobs.

Intended outcomes at completion of hospitality short courses are paid casual and part time employment within the hospitality and services industry within a restaurant, café, bar or food service outlet.
